

Design your own Ancient Egyptian cartouche

The Ancient Egyptians created one of the earliest known forms of writing.

The symbols they used were called HIEROGLYPHICS and work a little bit like our modern alphabet.

Hieroglyphs were written vertically, horizontally, left to right, or right to left.

When they wrote the names of gods or royal people they would put the hieroglyphs inside an oval called a cartouche.

