to pay. The fair fame of the town was at stake, and the meeting had been called so get volunteers to come forward and assist in helping the authorities to keep the peace.

Rev. Mr. Bradshaw said he agreed with all that had been said by Dr. St. George. Personally he could not see any harm in the matter, but he thought it was the town would have to pay.

Mr. James Fraser concurred, adding that he had said to his utmost to preserve order, and he relied on all Orangemen to do likewise.
